Second, any disrespect to our colours will be viewed as a sign of resignation. Removing your colours or disfiguring your colours, or 'throwing down your colours' will be viewed as your decision to leave the Club; hence not wishing to wear our colours

NOMINEE RULEST

This checklist is to assist Nominees in ensuring they conduct themselves correctly during their probation period.

Rule 1	COMMITMENT	Show comment to the Club by attending the designated “clubhouse” and scheduled events as much as possible. These attendances count when the Executive meet at the end of your 6-month probation period.
Rule 2	MATESHIP	Ensure you greet all members with a handshake. Make a point of being seen by moving around and greeting everyone. Try not to miss anyone. Take the time to talk to all members. This effort on your part counts towards getting to know you, while you are getting to know the membership. The same when you leave – shake hands with all to let them know you are leaving.
Rule 3	KNOWLEDGE	Make every effort to talk with members and question them about the various aspects of the Club, how it operates, how other clubs operate, and what to be wary of. Do not hesitate to ask the smallest question. You will learn much quicker by talking with everyone, not just the usual couple of friendly guys. Be prepared for some hard words at times. But balance these comments against other comments
Rule 4	ATTITUDE	Never make the mistake of being larger than you are. Many members have done things that are bigger than you. You will get to know these when you get to know each member. DO NOT think just because you get on with someone, you will be voted in. The vote is 100% of the Service members and you might be surprised who votes against you. Keep your attitude to yourself and enjoy the company of new people. GET TO KNOW THEM AND THEY WILL GET TO KNOW YOU!
Rule 5	RESPECT	Ensure you maintain respect for those who are due it. As a Nominee, that means respecting everyone in the Club. Play safe and get to know everyone first before you shoot your mouth off. All Service members have a military service. If you are a Nominee going for a Service membership, respect will help you through. If you are a Nominee to be a Sierra Squad member, respect will get you 80% of the way. Remember, you have nothing to prove to anyone, except that you want to be a member of the Club
Rule 6	FAMILIARITY	Get familiar with what the Club stands for, where it wants to go, and how you can help improve it. Nothing is set in concrete. Every member is a valued member. We all listen to each other, and so far, it has worked great. Become familiar with our Constitution and SOP’s. Find out who does what in the Club
Rule 7	ORIENTATION	We are a family orientated Club. We like partners and children joining our runs and overnights. We enjoy other Clubs and Clubs joining our runs. We follow the same policies as the Defence Department. We are open to having females as Service members and Sierra Squad members. Our orientation is aimed at being sociable. We are not a 1% MC Club. We do however respect their right to be 1%ers. But we make a point of minimal association with them.
Rule 8	DEDICATION	We are dedicated to a ‘Brotherhood’ of military and ex-military members and valued supporters. As such our three (3) main Runs each year are ANZAC Day (April), UN DAY Commemoration Service (October), your Sub Branch AGM. Additionally, the

		MBMMC get together once every two (2) years. If you miss one of these, start having a second thought about why you want to join us. As a Club, our one big chance at giving something back to the community is our UN DAY COMMEMORATION SERVICE. Our Club invented this, and a lot of external organisations now support us. We conduct the service!!! This belongs to us. No other MMC Club or other Club in Australia conducts this service
Rule 9	PRIDE	No, not one of the seven deadly sins, but part of the attitude we need you to adopt – pride in your Club, the colours and the breast patch. Get to know what the colours represent, and where the design for the breast patch came from. When you become fully patched up, show your pride by wearing your vest everywhere you ride. You will be amazed at what the general public think when you explain the Club to them. Be mindful that your vest is our colours. If they start to look tacky, be prepared for some harsh words from the membership.
Rule 10	DON'T FORGET THE OTHER NINE RULES
